

These Personal Board Meetings will guarantee that you achieve some of your major goals for 2020 within 90 days!

December 2019

Just think about it...

All major corporations that are serious about growth – anywhere in the world – assemble teams of highly experienced, smart people with diverse expertise – and these people are called Board Members!

Several times a year these people get together to formulate the strategic direction of the company and, throughout the year, review, measure progress and course-correct until they get the company to its intended objective.

Now, what if you took this approach in your own life?

The simple answer is that you would achieve whatever major goal you have – with relative ease!

Having your own ‘inner-circle’ team of smart people with diverse expertise is the key to achieving your big 2020 goals in just 90 days!

Just imagine...

Being surrounded by some of the smartest professionals in the country, as well as owners of growing private companies – all sitting around a boardroom table – helping you formulate a powerful and clear strategy to achieve your biggest 2020 goals!

Within just four hours you walk out of the boardroom with a detailed step by step plan on “‘exactly’ how you are going to get what you want”.

Not only that...

But you walk out of this boardroom confidently, and with peace of mind – knowing that you have a team that will support you throughout the year.

Isn't this what has been missing all these years?

You've been making plans, fully committed to achieving them, and yet... year after year, you keep falling short!

Now, could this approach, finally, be the breakthrough you've been hoping for?

The reason most people fail is that they are trying to accomplish BIG things they've never done before – all by themselves – then when the going gets tough, they are alone, without a clear plan, and no team support – inevitably they give up!

What makes this a game-changer for you is that it will eliminate guesswork, doubt and fear. You'll have a step-by-step plan customized specifically for you – that you can follow daily, until you get what you want.

No stress! No doubt! No sweat!

Just like walking – one foot in front of the other until you get to your goal!

Now that's an idea for you! If you'd like the next steps on how to implement this, you can read the full article here www.siyamapoko.com/2020
