Cancellation

You can cancel your membership anytime for any reason whatsoever. In fact, you are encouraged to cancel as soon as you are unhappy – for any reason. We also don't want to have unhappy private clients. If at the time of cancellation you have paid your full annual fee – we will simply deduct the months of membership you've utilized and refund you the balance (each month being R295). You can keep all the material already sent to you – because it's yours.

We also reserve a right to terminate your membership and refund you accordingly should we feel that you are no longer an ideal Private Client.
